The Robert Jensen Award for Excellence in Respiratory Measurement

This Society prize, valued at $US 2,000.00, was awarded for the first time at the Annual Scientific Meeting in Brisbane in 2010. The prize will be awarded to the presentation judged as best representing excellence in respiratory measurement, with both Oral and Poster presentations being eligible. This award has been kindly donated by Professor Robert Jensen, Hon. ANZSRS member in recognition of the quality of ANZSRS members' work, and is aimed at providing the recipient an opportunity to present their work at other scientific forums.

Eligibility Criteria:

- The presenter must be a financial Member of ANZSRS (Associate, Ordinary or Life Membership).
- A maximum of one award may be won by an individual Society member.
- All research presentations made at the ANZSRS Annual Scientific Meeting will be eligible for this Award providing:
  - The presenter had significant input into all aspects of the project, and
  - The work has not previously been presented at another scientific meeting (national or international).
  - The presenter has not won any other award for their presentation at the ASM (eg YIA, Best Poster, or Best Oral).

Conditions:

1. All documentation associated with abstract submission, including Conflict of Interest Statement, and disclosure of a previous presentation of the abstract, must be completed.
2. Recipients will be expected to provide a letter to the Website Manager for the Society Webpage within one month of being awarded the prize, summarising their presentation.
3. Recipients will also be expected to provide a letter of thanks to the sponsor of the award, Prof. Robert Jensen and send a copy of the abstract to him within one month of receipt of the award.
4. Recipients are encouraged to use the Award to attend an international meeting of their choice. Where possible, the sponsor, Prof. Robert Jensen, would like to meet the recipient at the international meeting of their choice.
5. Judging for this award will be in accordance with the ANZSRS Guidelines on Judging Presentations at Annual Scientific Meeting (available from the Society website).

The prize money will be forwarded to the recipient once condition 1, 2 and 3 have been completed. For contact details of Prof. Jensen and further information about the award please contact the Local Organising Committee Chair.
